SUBJECT: NIGERIA: DEMARCHE DELIVERED ON USG PARTICIPATION IN UNHRC AND DURBAN REVIEW CONFERENCE

REF: SECSTATE 18282

¶11. (SBU) On February 27 Poloff delivered reftel demarche on USG participation in the UN Human Rights Council, and the USG's posture toward the Durban Review Conference, to Ambassador M.K. Ibrahim, Director of the Second United Nations Division at the Nigerian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

¶12. (SBU) Ibrahim expressed pleasure that the U.S. would be engaging the HRC more than we have done in the recent past; he also said that Nigeria, being a very diverse country with a long history of sectarian strife, looked at "defamation" differently than the U.S. in a free speech/freedom of religion context. In Nigeria's view, he said, it was better at times to curtail the former to prevent violence generated by the inhibition of the latter. Post will relay to Department any further substantive comments but none are expected.
